I hold a US ham license and will be travelling to Morocco to do some archaeology. Is it legal for me to bring ham equipment and use it there?
Who would I have to contact? Does Morocco allow foriegn hams to operate in the country? The Moroccan Embassy here in the US has been less than helpful...

Well, yes, it has been beaten.  But I'm talking about about objective, useful discussion, not the "I did it so you have to" BS that seems to float around a lot....
